47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I have choose a competitive provider, Sonic, for my phone and internet utility for a few reasons.

1. They offer options that make sense to me. The larger companies I used previously offered the most cost effective options bundeled with services I didnt need.
2. They have wonderful customer service. When I first made the switch and ran into some issues with my new set up, I was able to get someone on the phone and out to my house almost right away. Partly because:
3. As a local, small business, Sonic is working hard to ensure a great service AND to improve the internet offerings in its community. Hello Fiber!

I also feel proud to support a small business who in turn supports their local community.
