47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

The US stands for freedom and you taking this from me is not okay. We already pay so much for cable, TV, internet that not having a choice is just ludicrous. I want a competitive provider I want options "more for my money not less" and limited.

FCC if you stand by and permit this to happen I feel you are okay with it because you are getting a deal on the side. I have a great phone and internet carrier thanks to competition for my money.

Due right by the consumer not the company. Bad managers loose great employees, or in this case customers loose good companies and get crappy service when no other choice is provided.
