47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

Just and fair competition benefits and protects the consumers and encourages new businesses. I find these smaller broadband service providers way better in many ways than the large incumbents- the larger ones in fact have the worst service! Consider just and fair markets for the people and do what it right - I implore you.
