

PRESENTATION TO FEDERAL INSTITUTE OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS OF MEXICO

On August 10, 2017, at the request of federal officials, EHT scientific advisors gave a two hour technical seminar to the Federal officials in Mexico about the major public health issues involved with wireless radiation, the increased vulnerability of children to radiofrequency radiation, and the need for precautionary policies to be developed - especially for new systems such as 5G.

Click HERE for a PDF file of the presentation.