Re: Applications of T-Mobile US, Inc., and Sprint Corporation for Consent to Assign Licenses, WT Docket No. No. 18-197

Dear Ms. Dortch:

T-Mobile US, Inc. (“T-Mobile”) herewith provides a supplemental response to the August 15, 2018, General Information and Document Request from the Federal Communications Commission (the “Commission”) in the above-referenced docket.¹ Enclosed, please find:

- A hard drive containing the load files and production index associated with the document requests in the Information Request, containing items tagged as “Highly Confidential,” “Confidential,” and “Public,” per the Protective Order;²

² Applications of T-Mobile US, Inc., and Sprint Corporation for Consent to Assign Licenses, Protective Order, WT Docket No. No. 18-197 (June 15, 2018) (“Protective Order”). Pursuant to discussions with Staff, custodial documents and data and materials being provided with this response, unless specifically reviewed and downgraded, have been classified as “Highly Confidential.” Notwithstanding that default classification, Applicants are not asserting Highly Confidential status for any documents that have been publicly released (which would be Public) or for third party materials that are copyrighted (which would be considered Confidential).

The enclosed drive contains responsive documents that, upon further review, have been downgraded for privilege.

This filing contains information that is “Highly Confidential” pursuant to the Protective Order in WT Docket No. 18-197. Accordingly, pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Information Request and Protective Order, a copy of the Highly Confidential filing (including the encrypted hard drive) is being provided to the Secretary’s Office. In addition, two copies of the Highly Confidential Filing are being delivered to Katherine Harris, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. Pursuant to the direction of the FCC Transaction Team, one copy of the encrypted hard drive containing the Highly Confidential document production is being delivered to the FCC’s e-Discovery vendor. In addition, a redacted copy of this Highly Confidential Filing is being filed electronically through the Commission’s Electronic Comment Filing System in the above-referenced docket.

T-Mobile and its majority shareholder Deutsche Telekom AG (“DT”) have made diligent efforts to ensure that none of the documents being submitted herewith are privileged under the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine. To the extent that any privileged documents may have been inadvertently produced, such production does not constitute waiver of any applicable privilege. T-Mobile and DT request that any privileged documents inadvertently produced be returned to T-Mobile as soon as such inadvertent production is discovered by any party, and reserve all rights to seek the return of any such documents.

Should any questions arise concerning the Response or the electronic media provided in connection with this filing, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned counsel for T-Mobile and DT.

Best regards,

/s/ Nancy J. Victory
