Re: Joint Response to ACA Connects Opposition to Joint Objection to Disclosure of Confidential and Highly Confidential Information, GN Docket No. 18-122, RM-11791, RM-11778

Dear Ms. Dortch,

In its Opposition to Joint Objection to Disclosure of Confidential and Highly Confidential Information¹, ACA Connects—America’s Communications Association (“ACA”) agrees to limit the individuals for which it seeks access to Confidential and Highly Confidential Information filed by Intelsat, SES, and Telesat pursuant to the Protective Order.² Specifically, beyond its outside counsel, ACA agrees to seek access only for Ross Lieberman, Brian Hurley, and Nikos Andrikogiannopoulos.³

Intelsat, SES, Telesat, and the C-Band Alliance do not oppose access for Messrs. Lieberman, Hurley, and Andrikogiannopoulos and have already provided them with the Highly Confidential Information filed by Intelsat, SES, and Telesat under the Protective Order.⁴ We trust that this resolves this matter.

¹ Opposition to Joint Objection to Disclosure of Confidential and Highly Confidential Information, ACA Connects – America’s Communications Association, GN Dkt. No. 18-122 et al. (filed Sept. 12, 2019) (“Opposition”).

² Expanding Flexible Use of the 3.7-4.2 GHz Band et al., GN Docket No. 18-122 et al., Protective Order, DA 19-822 (rel. Aug. 26, 2019) (“Protective Order”).

³ Opposition at pgs. 2-3.

⁴ The three companies previously provided this information to ACA’s outside counsel.
