Re: Promoting Telehealth and Telemedicine in Rural America, WC Docket No. 17-310 –
FY2017 and 2018 Rural Rates

Dear Ms. Dortch,

Based on further consultations with the Wireline Competition Bureau, TeleQuality Communications, LLC (“TeleQuality”) hereby submits a revised version of its interstate “Method 3” rural rate justification for FY2017, which it filed on February 5, 2019, and which had subsequent corrections, and its interstate “Method 3” rural rate justification for FY2018, which it filed on June 12, 2019. Both of these were last revised on August 20, 2019.¹ These justifications support the contract rates, reached after competitive bidding, for service to healthcare providers (“HCPs”) through the Rural Health Care Telecommunications Program.² These versions replace prior filed versions for these funding years. The entire revised justifications are attached.

The only changes in these spreadsheets from previously submitted ones are to revise and itemize the various FCC revenue-based fees (USF contribution, TRS, ITSP regulatory fees and NANPA), and to include all of those in the total cost per circuit.

¹ See Letter of John T. Nakahata, Counsel to TeleQuality, LLC, to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 17-310 (filed February 5, 2019), most recently corrected in Letter of John T. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 17-310 (filed June 12, 2019), most recently corrected in Letter of John T. Nakahata, Counsel to TeleQuality, LLC, to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 17-310 (filed August 20, 2019).

² See Letter of John T. Nakahata, Counsel to TeleQuality, LLC, to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 17-310 (filed February 5, 2019); Letter of John T. Nakahata, Counsel to TeleQuality, LLC, to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 17-310 (filed June 12, 2019).

These revised justifications are subject to a request for confidential treatment. The basis for that request is set forth in the letters that accompany the February 5, 2019 and June 12, 2019 filings; those grounds are incorporated by reference herein.

Should you have further questions or require additional information in order to grant the requested confidentiality treatment, please contact me immediately so that I can provide further assistance to resolve this matter.
