Re: Ex Parte Notice: Applications of T-Mobile US, Inc., and Sprint Corporation for Consent to Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, WT Docket No. 18-197

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On September 25, 2018, Mary Jean Fell, Larissa Evans, Nanci London, Kathy McCarroll, Phillip Meredith, Jennifer Parziale, and John Patuto of Sprint Corporation (“Sprint”); Joseph Rancour and Anisa Somani of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher, & Flom LLP, counsel to Sprint; and Regina M. Keeney, Richard Metzger, and I of Lawler, Metzger, Keeney & Logan, LLC, counsel to Sprint, had a phone call with Catherine Matraves, Charles Mathias, Matthew J. Collins, and Thuy Tran of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau; and Paul Lafontaine, Katherine LoPiccalo, and Aleks Yankelevich of the Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis. During the phone call, Sprint’s representatives discussed various aspects of the Data Request that the Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau sent to Sprint on September 10, 2018, including the format of relevant information that Sprint maintains.¹

¹ See generally Letter from Donald K. Stockdale, Jr., Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, to Vonya B. McCann, Sprint Corporation, WT Docket No. 18-197 (Sept. 10, 2018) (“Data Request”).

In response to Commission staff's informal request during the call, we are providing herewith a description of the customer, service plan, and device information Sprint maintains in Attachment A. A sample of the data that corresponds to the fields listed in Attachment A is included on the enclosed hard drive. The hard drive also includes a sample of the final formatted information that Sprint proposes to provide, which merges these fields into a single file. Because the information is commercially sensitive, it has been designated "Highly Confidential" in accordance with the applicable protective order in this proceeding.²

Pursuant to section 1.1206(b)(2) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206(b)(2), this ex parte notification is being filed electronically for inclusion in the public record of the above-referenced proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Emily J.H. Daniels
