RE: MM Docket #92254/#92486

Dear Mr. Gross,

My reason for writing is to express my concern in regards to the MM Docket #92-254 that would limit political campaign advertisements to have the freedom to be able to air material that would be considered 'indecent' from the media's viewpoint, such as, film clippings of aborted fetuses, at prime time, but would force them to air on 'safe harbor' time, midnight - 6:00 am.

Mr. Gross, there is great concern this petition would create discrimination based upon religious beliefs. For instance, Mike Bailey, a former '92 candidate, was able to air his stance against abortion by showing clippings of aborted fetuses. Should the MM Docket #92-254 take effect, this would give an unfair advantage to opposing political rivals and create a bias in an already tilted political arena. Christians that are running for office, would be open to the mercy of the media on what is considered 'decent' or 'indecent'.

A perfect example of beingat the mercy of the media' is the refusal of WAGA-TV, Atlanta, Georgia to air Mr. Daniel Becker's (candidate for Congress in the Ninth District of Georgia) 30 minute political program "Abortion in America: the Real Story". Mr. Becker was denied his 'reasonable access' to broadcasting facilities that is in effect under Section 312(a) (7) of the Communications Act. WAGA-TV also denied their obligation under Section 315(a) of the Act not to censor programming aired on behalf of political candidates.....all in the name of 'indecenty'.

"Indecent" is used to describe a word or action that is grossly unseemly or offensive to manners or morals. Indecency can then be used to depict commercials with sexual connotations in perfume commercials, such as "Calvin Klein", or the "Seinfeld" show that aired a 30 minute program on masturbation at 9:00 pm, or "L.A. Law" that repeatedly airs sex and violence, or "Donahue" that performed a homosexual wedding between 2 men and allowed them to kiss and discuss their sex life, and the list could go on to create quite a volume of entries. These few were listed to reveal that "indecenty" is not the issue, but the struggle in the power for control in regulating moral issues. Mr. Gross, please deny petition MM Docket No. 92-254 for it would deny our constitutional freedoms that have already been established.....thank you so much!

REF: Docket MM92-254

Mr. Sikes,

Thank you for letting the public respond the the "Political Advertisment Restrictions" Inquiry, Docket #: MM92-254.

Please register my comments AGAINST any further restrictions on political advertizements for the following reasons:

- 1) Politicians have the decency to realize that if they advertize inappropriate material, they won't get elected. It is simple as that. A poor message will be a turn-off to voters.
- 2) I think that imposing restrictions is a tactic that the government cannot prove that it has direct interest in controlling.
- 3) Lastly, the whims of one politically minded group could control what ads do and don't get on the air, something that I think could be more dangerous than what the government would want to take responsibility for.

Once again, thank you for allowing public input on this important issue.

Respectfully,

Mark Rice

I am writing to voice my concern that the FCC will be ruling shortly, on whether or not pictures/videos of aborted babies may be used in the campaign ads for candidates running for Federal offices. Although these pictures/videos are gruesome to look at, the fact remains that abortion has gruesome consequences. Someone always dies. I believe that it is within the guaranteed 1st amendment rights of a candidate for Federal office to express their personal beliefs during a campaign, in the manner that the candidate judges necessary, in order to reflect these beliefs. There are many of us who believe that abortion is murder, and continue to work for its ultimate demise, however politically incorrect this position may be. Please continue to support the guaranteed rights given to us by the United States Constitution, even if we do not agree. I ask that you will rule to continue to allow that the pictures/videos of aborted babies can be shown in campaign ads by candidates running for Federal offices.
