Re: Notice of Ex Parte; Protecting Against National Security Threats to the Communications Supply Chain Through FCC Programs, WC Docket No. 18-89

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Thursday, November 8, 2018, Jim Lyon, General Manager, and Jonathan Hills, Wireless Network Manager, of Mark Twain Communications Company (“Mark Twain”) and their counsel, Carrie DeVier, Clare Liedquist and the undersigned with Herman & Whiteaker, LLC, held a teleconference with Nirali Patel, Wireline Advisor to Chairman Ajit Pai of the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC” or “Commission”). During the call, Mr. Lyon and Mr. Hills discussed the potential negative impact of the proposed rule in the Protecting Against National Security Threats to the Communications Supply Chain Through FCC Programs proceeding (“National Security NPRM”) on small rural telecommunications companies.

Mr. Lyon described how Mark Twain is a small, rural telecommunications provider that serves northeast Missouri and receives federal universal service (“USF”) support. Mr. Lyon and Mr. Hills explained that Mark Twain switched to Huawei equipment after years of using unreliable equipment and has found it to be the most dependable and affordable option. Mr. Lyon further explained how the National Security NPRM has resulted in uncertainty for its equipment purchases and future deployment plans.

Mr. Lyon discussed how Mark Twain submitted bids in the Connect America Fund Phase II (“CAF II”) auction based on cost estimates for expanding its existing infrastructure, which currently includes Huawei equipment. Mr. Lyon and Mr. Hills urged the FCC to not adopt rules that would jeopardize receipt of USF funds by Mark Twain's continued use of Huawei equipment.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's Rules, we are filing this letter electronically in the above-captioned docket. Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald L. Herman, Jr.
Carrie DeVier
