

We need to confirm and enforce Title Two Authority to maintain net neutrality. A former legal employee for a major communications company must not endanger net neutrality for the gain of the big players.