

Please do not repeal laws that provide the environment for a free internet. Net Neutrality is essential for keeping the internet accessible and open for all. By taking away these laws, the FCC will be giving opportunities to regulate the internet and the sites that are accessible.