

This is in response to the egregious, cowardly, corrupt, shameful and undemocratic attempt to take away freedom of the internet and give it to internet service providers in an attempt to censor and profit from manipulating content available to everyone.

The FCC is a puppet of these providers and the people do not support any laws that stand to benefit the removal of internet freedoms.