

Please reserve the net neutrality rules, it allows us to access all of the internet and does not leave the regulation up to the whims and delights of ISP. The internet is a vital tool for learning and has given a generation of people equal access to information, removing net neutrality will destroy this ability. Please protect the rights of an individual and not bend to large companies.