

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title II oversight of ISPs. What is being done is unjust, classist and abelist. The financially secure aren't the only people who deserve rights and the ability to participate in larger society.