

Network Neutrality is extremely important to the free expression of ideas and speech in the USA. Without it network companies can decide what they want us to see and what they don't. If something we say is against their politics they might censor what we post or send over the internet. Network neutrality is essential. Please do not weaken or do away with network neutrality.