

I am writing to urge the FCC to retain the regulations maintaining Net Neutrality. I rely heavily upon the internet to conduct my solo law practice. As a small business, the costs of legal research and electronic filings now required by many jurisdictions are currently manageable. Rolling back the previous administration's protections will put my small business into jeopardy. I urge you to consider the best interests of the consumers and small businesses over the interests of the large corporations.