I strongly urge the FCC to maintain net neutrality as it is fundamental in keeping the internet equal to all people looking to use it. It is needed by society from everything to government interaction,entertainment services, job search and application, and education. If you deny net neutrality you are going to be increasing the difficulty of finding jobs for many people. You will also hamper the education of many people.