

I am filling a complaint against Ajit Pai and the FCC. I wholly support net neutrality. Without net neutrality the internet will not support new business or innovation. It is vital for the internet to remain open and free. Repealing net neutrality will widen the wage gap and make big business bigger.