

Net Neutrality is in keeping with our nations' sacred traditions around freedom of the press. The FCC and its commissioners risks going down in history as anti-American censors of our First Amendment rights if they vote to remove Net Neutrality and open the gates for inequity.