

Please do not end Internet neutrality. Its loss of would take money away from struggling small businesses and give it to billionaires who don't need it. It is another nail in the coffin of equality and justice.