

Hello,

I am writing you to declare my opposition to revoking Net Neutrality. This is an attack on freedom, freedom of speech, and suppression of information that does not serve those with deep pockets. You should be ashamed of yourself. Expect many more letters to come from myself, friends, coworkers and family. This will not stand!

Best,

Michelle
California Resident