

I am here to express my absolute opposition to getting rid of net neutrality regulations. Doing this only hurts the American people, our freedom, and our economy. We will not allow this despicable reversal.