

I fully support the use of Title II to govern internet use, access, and distribution. Please do not change the legal footing that would make it easier for cable and internet companies to charge more for some services over other services. This would be devastating for so many people who are being taken advantage of by big corporations. This change cannot happen. The internet is a universal right for all. Please do not let this become a reality.