John Van Valkenburg

I wholeheartedly support net neutrality. My business relies on uninterrupted access to the internet. If you repeal net neutrality it will close off all the avenues for businesses. Competition will be a thing of the past.

Please do not repeal net neutrality. This country will only suffer and lose it's place in the world.