

I am fully in support of Net Neutrality. Please do not sell out US citizens to communications companies. Your job is to protect the consumers by regulating this industry and if you fail in that capacity you will be forever remembered in history as having ruined the internet as we know it.