Vote to keep the internet open for all; vote to maintain net neutrality. Don't fall for the twisted talking points that will inexorably lead to higher prices for everyone and, more importantly, will increase inequality in the United States.