

Please, please, please don't dismantle net neutrality. The open internet is absolutely fundamental to the prevention of corruption, oppression, and consolidation of power by a few ultra-wealthy agencies. I view net neutrality as unconditionally vital to our democracy, and to the future of our species.

Comment on proceeding 17-108, submitted by Christopher Hackman of Los Angeles, CA on Nov. 25, 2017.