

Ending Net Neutrality is one of the more blatant opportunities created for big business and the wealthy ever perpetrated on the public. It is a move toward monopolization, allowing only those who can pay to play into their business competition. Net Neutrality is a roadblock to free speech and open commerce. Please do not impose the unfair advantage of removing Net Neutrality. I appeal to your sense of decency.