

Please retain Net Neutrality. It's our only chance at true democracy. Anyone—not just those who want to pay Comcast a premium—should be able to access sites where political change is discussed. Low income people need a voice, need power. Don't take it away by letting Comcast decide who gets to speak.