

Please maintain Net Neutrality. The citizens of our country deserve to have equal access to information, science, technology, and educational materials. Don't let providers sell access to the highest bidder. Businesses rely on their customers having internet access. Without Net Neutrality, our economy will be in the hands of internet providers.