

I am strongly opposed to reversing the protections of net neutrality. As a small business owner I am seriously concerned about the monopolization of wealthy corporations over the common person and their business. This only serves to make big corporations bigger while creating more disadvantages for entrepreneurs and for individual citizens' rights to access information freely. Keep the American people's Internet free and on an even playing field. Thank you.

Sarah Walston MA, MEd, LMHC
Shoreline WA