

I strongly urge the fcc to keep internet freedom and keep the internet a truly equal playing field not to be cut up by isp's who would be able to control the flow of information