

I support Title 2 oversight of ISPs and support net neutrality.

We cannot allow corporations like Comcast, Verizon, AT&T and FCC Chairman Ajit Pai to get rid of net neutrality. This would divide the internet into slow and fast lanes, and restrict information and content.

I do not believe big telecom companies could be trusted to be transparent and maintain a level playing field for all content.