

Illinois Food Allergy Education Association is a small not-for-profit corporation in Illinois. Please keep Net Neutrality. A small corporation cannot pay fees for internet preference like a large national not-for-profit or most for-profit organizations. This would diminish our capacity to inform the people in Illinois. This would diminish any persuasive power we would have in advocating our positions. The Internet was to connect people to information- not just to information provided by the richest companies.