

FAIRPOINT BUSINESS SERVICE CUSTOMERS

Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, Pennsylvania and anywhere else FBS may provide services today

Important Notice

You are being provided this notice in compliance with FCC regulation 47 CFR 64.1120(e)(3). Pending receipt of the appropriate regulatory approvals, the legal entity name and company structure providing you with telecommunications services, which may include local and/or long distance services, will change. These changes do not impact the rates, terms or conditions of any telecommunications services you receive today.

On or after January 1, 2019, FairPoint Business Services, LLC will merge with and into another Consolidated Communications company, Consolidated Communications Enterprise Services, Inc. Your invoices will continue to reflect the Consolidated Communications brand name.

You always have the right to choose another local or long distance service provider, if one is available. You can do this before or after the entity merger date. If you decide to choose a service provider other than Consolidated Communications, a carrier change charge may apply. If you do nothing, your services will continue as before, under the Consolidated Communications brand, without change to any of the rates, terms or conditions of your services. If you had previously arranged for a Preferred Carrier Freeze on your account, however, please contact Consolidated Communications after the merger has taken effect, to arrange for a new freeze to apply.

If you have any questions or concerns about this notice or any of your services, please contact your Consolidated Communications service representative at 844.YOUR.CCI (844.968.7224).

We appreciate and value your continued business.

NOTE: THIS INSERT SHOULD BE DISTRIBUTED TO ALL FAIRPOINT BUSINESS SERVICES CUSTOMERS INCLUDING CUSTOMERS LOCATED IN MASSACHUSETTS, NEW HAMPSHIRE, NEW YORK, PENNSYLVANIA AND ANY OTHER STATES WHERE FAIRPOINT BUSINESS SERVICES IS PROVIDING SERVICES AND BILLING CUSTOMERS

IMPORTANT NOTICE

You are being provided this notice in compliance with FCC regulation 47 CFR 64.1120(e)(3). Pending receipt of the appropriate regulatory approvals, the legal entity name and company structure providing you with long distance and/or local services will change. This change does not impact your services, or any of the rates, terms or conditions of the services you receive today.

Effective January 1, 2019, YCOM Networks, Inc. (your local exchange provider) will merge with Ellensburg Telephone Company and become known as Consolidated Communications of Washington Company, LLC. Similarly, on January 1, 2019, Comerco, Inc. dba/Consolidated Communications Long Distance will merge with another Consolidated Communications company, Consolidated Communications Enterprise Services, Inc. Your local and long distance toll bills will still reflect the Consolidated Communications brand name.

You always have the right to choose another local or long distance service provider, if one is available. You can do this before or after the entity merger date. If you decide to choose a service provider other than Consolidated Communications, a carrier change charge may apply. If you do nothing, your services will continue as before, under the Consolidated Communications brand, without any changes to the rates, terms or conditions of the service. If you had previously arranged for a Preferred Carrier Freeze on your account, please contact Consolidated Communications after the merger has taken effect, to arrange for a new freeze to apply.

If you have any questions or concerns about this notice or any of your services, please contact your Consolidated Communications representative at 844.YOUR.CCI (844.968.7224).

We appreciate and value your continued business.
