

Comment addressed to United States Federal Communications Commission
Regarding Proceeding 17-108 (Net neutrality)

Dear Commissioners:

It is essential for the democracy to provide and sustain internet access that does not suppress or promote the views or interests of the communications providers over those of the users of that spectrum.

I urge you to vote against this proposal.

Your grandchildren will thank you.

Sincerely,

Richard I. Cook
5434 S. Blackstone Ave
Chicago, IL 60165