

I support net neutrality. Do not give internet providers the capabilities to control my access to websites. You continually say that it will not happen but we have seen examples of it throughout the past decade before the recent laws. Title 2 is a powerful way to give control back to the consumer.

I look forward to hearing on the 15th that net neutrality still stands.

Thank you,
Joseph Macdonald