ORDER

Issued: June 10, 1993; Released: June 14, 1993

This order memorializes a ruling entered on the record at the prehearing conference held in the above-entitled matter on June 9, 1993, which denied in its entirety the Petition to Enlarge Issues, filed by Aurio A. Matos, on May 14, 1993.

Mr. Matos sought the designation of a Section 1.65 issue and a real-party-in-interest issue against the application of Lloyd Santiago-Santos and Lourdes Rodriguez Bonet. The Presiding Judge informed the parties that he had reviewed the Petition in question as well as the statement filed in opposition and the reply thereto, and had concluded that Petitioner had failed to demonstrate a pattern of repeated, willful violations of the Commission's reporting requirements which would warrant the designation of a Section 1.65 issue, and that insufficient allegations of fact, supported in the manner required by Section 1.229 of the Commission's rules, had been cited by Petitioner, to warrant adding a real-party-in-interest issue against the Santiago-Santos and Rodriguez-Bonet application.
