

Please do not change the rules for internet neutrality, allowing businesses to purchase and providers to charge more for better or faster access. The internet must be allowed to function as a forum for all, not simply for those with the most resources. Thank You.