

FCC,

Please do not change the current net neutrality laws. The proposed changes are detrimental to the people of this country, ultimately reducing their access to information.

Please put us before the ISP corporations and do not pass these changes.

Justin Degrazia