

I support Net Neutrality! A free and open internet is essential. Putting control of information into the hands of internet providers is a bad idea and could and probably will increase costs to individuals as well as restrict the free flow of information. Please do not restrict information and open the doors for censorship of many types of information.