

I want independent sources to have access to the airwaves in all media.

For profit business have the ability to fund this and should continue to do so.

Keeping an understanding of how media in all forms work, having a wide number of people knowing this and using this is vital to the free press which our democracy thrives as a result of.