

It is imperative that we, as a country, maintain net neutrality laws. This government should maintain the internet as a free and open information highway, as this was the intent of the originators of the internet. To eliminate net neutrality would further demonstrate this administration's continuing battle against freedom, equality, truth, common sense, science, and all this country was founded upon. Act with a heart.