

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs. We live in a democracy and not a dictatorship and no one should decide what websites we can and cannot access. Ending/restricting net neutrality violates the first amendment and the Constitution.