

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs. The preservation of net neutrality is the essence of free speech. Bias in favor of larger corporations at the expense of each person's interconnectivity threatens this, and also places the public at risk for exposure to propaganda by large, wealthy interests. Corporatization is not a value of our Founding Fathers.