

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs. It is critical that we maintain an open internet, and not cede control of a tool so vital to our economy and way of life to a group of megalithic corporations.