

I support Net Neutrality, as should everyone who seeks a prosperous, inventive society that enables each and every one of us. Without it, we hand over our rights, our well-being and our lives over to corporate greed. That kind of control should never even have been an option. Support Net Neutrality. If not for yourself, do it for your family, friends and all generations to come.

Cheers,

Corwin T. Cantin