

As a small e-commerce business owner, I need net neutrality to remain in place so that I can continue to easily reach customers. E-commerce makes starting a business accessible, and small business owners across the country will be hurt by the elimination of net neutrality.