

A Poem On Net Neutrality

Received & Inspected

DEC 04 2017

FCC Mailroom

I understand the temptation
Given our nation
To give power where power exists.

Comcast made a pledge
But they don't NEED this edge.
It's better if freedom persists.

Please consider the uproar
From the citizens next door
Your neighbors, constituents, kids.

They broke your website
For what they think is right
Don't sell their minds to whoever outbids.

Please consider the future
You really want to suture
Yourself to an idea your descendants decry?

In the movie they make
In 2088
Wouldn't you rather be the good guy?

Please don't repeal the Net Neutrality regulations.

You will be remembered more kindly if you demure.

Sincerely,
Abigail Corfman
